FOREST DEPARTMENT.

IMPERIAL FOREST SCHOOL, DEHRA DUN.

Notification dated 1st June 1906.

Applications are invited before 15th July 1906, from natives of Mysore being full graduates in Arts for training in the Imperial Forest School at Dehra Dun, with a view to their subsequent employment as Forest Rangers in the State on salaries rising from Rs. 50 to Rs. 100 per mensem, provided their conduct and training continue to be satisfactory.

Candidates should submit certificates of physical fitness for out-door life, age and of respectability and moral character from heads of Colleges or individuals of position.

2. Selected candidates must appear in October next for the Entrance Examination of the Dehra Dun School, which will be held in the office of the Conservator of Forests at Bangalore, on passing which they will be called upon to undergo a probationary practical forest training of three and a half months under the orders of the Conservator, before joining the Forest School in April 1907.

3. While under this practical training, they will receive travelling allowance of Rs. 20 per mensem, and should they give satisfaction during this period, will be deputed to Dehra Dun and given—

(i) A monthly stipend which will not be more than Rs. 40 per mensem during the course of 23½ months which they have to undergo at the school ;

(ii) their actual travelling allowance to and from Dehra Dun.

4. The grant of this stipend will be held to constitute a lien on the candidate's services for a period of five years after leaving the school, and removal for misconduct within that time will be grounds for refund of the total stipend awarded, and for this, proper security will be demanded. On the other hand, Government will be under no obligation to employ the candidate after returning from the school, while it may discontinue the grant of stipend at any time during the school course without assigning any reason for so doing.

For further information regarding the rules, etc., of the school, applicants should address this office.

2. The auction will commence at 2 P.M. on the day of sale, and, if the sale is not completed on the same day, it will be continued on the next following day at the same hour.

3. The exclusive privilege above described will be disposed of to the highest bidder, but the sale will be subject to the confirmation of the Deputy Commissioner, who reserves to himself the right to accept or reject any bid without assigning any reason therefor.

4. Parties intending to bid must attend either in person or by duly accredited agents, and no person will be permitted to bid either on his own behalf or on account of any one else, unless he deposits a sum of Rs. 100. The deposits made by the unsuccessful bidders will be returned at the close of sale. The successful bidder shall, within three days after the confirmation of the sale is intimated to him, pay into the Mysore District Treasury one-fourth of the total rental, including the deposit already made. Should he fail to do so, the deposit will be forfeited and the exclusive privilege will be re-sold by the officer conducting the sale.

5. The sale effected under the above para will be at the risk of the defaulting bidder, who will forfeit all gain, and, in the event of a loss by such re-sale, shall make good the deficiency between the total amount payable by him for the whole period under the terms of the original sale and the total amount payable by the successful bidder at the re-sale.

If the deficit be not paid on demand, it will be liable to be recovered as a revenue demand.

6. The lessee shall sign an agreement binding himself to observe the conditions below, and it should be executed within three days from the date on which the confirmation of the sale may be intimated to him ; in default, the deposit will be forfeited and the right re-sold.

7. The balance of the lease amount and the local cess at one anna in the rupee on the whole sum shall be paid in full before the end of July 1906 or by quarterly khists in advance, i.e., on 1st December 1906 (1st) (khist), 2nd June 1907 (2nd khist), and 1st December 1907 (3rd khist). In the event of a khist not being so paid, collection and removal of the barks will be stopped and the whole of the balance of the lease amount and local cess due will be recovered as a revenue arrear.

Conditions.
